JOHN RUTLEDGE.

LONDON, OCTOBER 31.

PRIVATE letters from Holland by the laſt mail ſay, that the French and Spaniſh ambaſſadors ſeem very ſolicitous to know of the States-general what part they intend to take in caſe a war ſhould break out between England and either of thoſe powers; but that the States have refuſed to declare their intentions at preſent; excepting that it is their hearty deſire to remain only ſpectators. Since the above ambaſſadors have been ſo urgent upon that head, the States have given freſh orders to augment their forces both by ſea and land. The letters alſo ſay, that the Pruſſian ambaſſador has ſent an expreſs with diſpatches to acquaint the King his maſter with the above particulars, and that he has often a private conference with the honourable Mr. Yorke, the Engliſh ambaſſador. The letters alſo add, that the French and Spaniſh ambaſſadors are ſo diſliked, that they often meet with inſults from the populace.

From Conſtantinople we have advice, that Abaza Pacha and ſeveral other officers have been beheaded by order of the Grand Signior, for having abandoned the Crimea without making any effort to defend it. Their heads were expoſed at the gate of the Seraglio.

Admiral Elphinſtone's retreat has occaſioned that of a great number of Engliſh, who were in the Ruſſian ſervice, and who would not ſerve under Count Orlow.

Letters from Cairo and Alexandria of the 14th and 17th of Auguſt adviſe, that Ali Bey, partly from the want of means to continue his expeditions, and partly with a deſire of adopting a better plan, has renounced the conqueſts he had made in Syria, to ſecure thoſe in Egypt; and contents himſelf for the preſent with the poſſeſſions of that kingdom, and that of the Black Sea.

NOVEMBER 1. Wedneſday the following Ruſſian Noblemen arrived in Town, viz. the Prince de Rowakin, Prince Gagarin, Count de Chermeteff, and M. de Saldern, and yeſterday they viſited the Hereditary Prince of Heſſe Darmſtadt, at his houſe in Suffolk Street.

Orixa was, we hear, the province ſaved to the Eaſt-India Company, by the late Duke of Bedford's intrepidity at the peace of Fontainebleau.

It is whiſpered that Government has an intention of claiming the province of Maryland as an eſcheat to the Crown, on account of iſſue failing in the line of the late proprietary.

A new order of Knighthood, under the title of the Holy Conception, hath been inſtituted by his Catholic Majeſty, on account of the birth of the new-born Infant of Spain, to accompliſh a vow which his Majeſty hath made, in caſe he ſhould have a grand-ſon. This order will be compoſed of the principal Noblemen of the Kingdom, and the King himſelf is to be the Grand Maſter.

NOVEMBER 2. Yeſterday, about one o'clock, the Lord Mayor Elect was preſented to the Right Hon. the Lord Chancellor for his Majeſty's approbation, when his Lordſhip was approved of; after which the Lord Chancellor gave an elegant regale to the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, Officers, &c. who attended on the occaſion.

The Right Hon. the Lord Mayor Elect intends to clear, as far as is in his power, this City of Beggars and Vagabonds, during his Mayoralty, which will be of great ſervice to the Community.

The laſt letters from Senegal, brought by the Lord North, Capt. Downes, mention, that the Governor and Garriſon continued remarkably healthy, and that every thing was quiet on the Coaſt.

They write from the Levant, that ſince the withdrawing of Admiral Elphinſtone, and the Britiſh Sailors, the Ruſſian fleet under Count Orlow has not gone forward one right ſtep.

It is ſaid that a ſquadron of four men of war of the line are for the future to be ſtationed on the coaſts of Anamahoe and Guinea, for the better protection of the Britiſh Traders, who ſuffer greatly from the natives and interlopers.

NOVEMBER 4. Letters from Smyrna mention, that the Admiral Orlow, with his ſquadron, was in the Canal of Chio, and was on the eve of executing ſome great enterpriſe. It is expected that he will land 1500 troops in the Morea or the iſle of Candia.

They have received advice at Breſt, that a ſmart ſhock of an earthquake was felt at the Iſland of Goree, the principal French ſettlement on the coaſt of Africa, which had greatly choaked up the bar, ſo as to render it very dangerous for ſhipping.

A report prevails, that the iſland of St. Maire Levada, on the Albenian coaſt in Greece, was nearly deſtroyed by an earthquake the latter end of Auguſt laſt.

Wedneſday Mr. Alderman Townſend returned from Norfolk to Bruce Caſtle, Tottenham. The next day certain officers, by virtue of warrants from the Commiſſioners of the land and window taxes, levied on Mr. Townſend's chattels for theſe reſpective aſſeſſments to the amount of 200l. Mr. Townſend proteſted that, on account of the improper repreſentation of the county of Middleſex, he would not pay the taxes, and adhering uniformly to this motive, he has ſuffered this act to be executed, having abſolutely refuſed payment on every demand. The conſequence of this meaſure will produce a trial in the Court of King's Bench, wherein this grand national point will be conteſted on either ſide.

Extract of a letter from Dublin, October 25.

"Notwithſtanding the Lord Lieutenant has taken every means to increaſe his majority, even to the filling up boroughs with menial ſervants and Exciſe Officers, he now begins to be frightened about the means of ſupporting it, as he has great reaſon to dread a revolt amongſt his penſioners! They are afraid of the permanency of their patron's power, and therefore want to have their penſions and appointments for life, which he has promiſed the Engliſh Miniſtry to do without. Whilſt he is thus embarraſſed, he finds himſelf loſing ground. In the late conference with Lord Shannon, he was told by that Nobleman, that though he thought the ſervices of his family demanded his penſion being doubled, he muſt expect no more from him, than an aſſiſtance in thoſe meaſures that he looked upon as conducive to the good of his country. This eclairciſſement has broke off the treaty."

NOVEMBER 5. No Writs have yet been applied for to remove Mr. Townſend's Cauſe from the Sheriff's Court, but it is thought it will be removed to the King's Bench, as it remains at the option of the oppoſite party to remove it into which Court he chuſes; however, it muſt be determined by a Middleſex Jury, be it in the King's Bench or Common Pleas.—Many people think Mr. Townſend's refuſal to pay the Taxes the moſt patriotic and public-ſpirited ſtep that has been taken with regard to the Middleſex Election; while, on the other hand, others think it done in order to regain his popularity.

According to the laſt letters from Berlin, we are informed that notwithſtanding the warlike preparations that have been making in the Dominions of his Pruſſian Majeſty as well as thoſe of the Emperor, the former ſeems not much diſpoſed to embroil Europe once more in a general rupture. Theſe pacific diſpoſitions in his Pruſſian Majeſty are more to be attributed to the preſent habit of his body, than to the turn of his mind; that Prince having been for ſome time in a declining way, which has baffled the art of his moſt ſkilful phyſicians.

A Gentleman arrived from France informs, that the Fortifications at Cherbourg, which were entirely deſtroyed by the Engliſh laſt war, are compleatly rebuilt and fortified; on the outer ramparts are mounted 44 pounders, and on the upper batteries 18 and 12 pounders.

The Maſter of a Veſſel arrived from Holland, reports, that ſince the attempt made on the life of the Prince Stadtholder, the Ordinary Swiſs Body Guard had been diſplaced, and the Royal Dutch Regiment put on duty in their room. It is further reported, that all the Swiſs Regiments are to be diſmiſſed the ſervice of the State, and that his Catholic Majeſty is going to enter them into his ſervice.

According to advice brought by a veſſel from Liſbon, the Portugueſe are using the utmoſt diligence in repairing all the men of war now in their ſea ports, and it is ſaid that Spain has agreed to lend them four ſhips of the line from Cadiz, in order to make up a formidable ſquadron for the Eaſt-Indies.

It is given out that five ſhips of the line from Chatham, and the ſame number from Plymouth, will be ordered to ſail with all poſſible expedition to Portſmouth, and to proceed from thence in company with ſix other ſhips, to watch the motions of the French and Spaniards.

His Majeſty's ſhip the Powey, at Sheerneſs, is put into commiſſion, and the command of her given to Captain Thomas Wilkinſon.

The Racehorſe ſloop, at Sheerneſs, is put into commiſſion, and Captain Chinney appointed to the command of her.

We are aſſured from authority, that upwards of two hundred men (ſome of the middling rank) are now priſoners at Carthagena, who are treated with the moſt inſulting cruelty, and are loaded with the moſt galling chains. Oh Britain how are thy honours tarniſhed!

We are well aſſured, there is not the leaſt change intended in the principal departments of ſtate.

The Premier has declared, that whenever he ſhall find himſelf perſonally attacked in the courſe of the enſuing ſeſſions, he is determined in his own defence, to make uſe of parliamentary truſt, by propoſing the queſtion for the order of the day.

It is the general talk, that ſome late proceedings of the Spaniards, at well at Carthagena as other places, will be a new bone of contention.

King Henry the Fifth, had but 56,000l. and Queen Elizabeth but 160,000l. yearly. In the time of James II. the revenue for the whole expence of the government was 2,119,000l. a ſum that will not now ſupply the current ſervice of the year.

The people now pay near eight millions in taxes per annum, which is above forty times as much as they did in the reign of Queen Elizabeth.

Would the Britiſh Court but ſhow a proper reſentment, ſays a correſpondent, for the ſeizure of the Hawke ſloop at Carthagena, they would immediately order an embargo on all Spaniſh ſhips in the Thames, and in all our ports. Such a proceeding has been, and has wrought the deſired effect.

The late Lord Baltimore, we hear, caught his death by a journey over the Roman Campania, at a ſeaſon particularly baleful, and from which he was earneſtly adviſed by his celebrated friend Linnæus, of Stockholm, with whom he maintained a conſtant correſpondence.

NOVEMBER 7. We can aſſure the public, that the D. of C. is married to the ſiſter of a certain unpopular Colonel.

And we now further aſſure the public, that his R. H. Georg. and attended by two fair ladies, took ſhipping on Friday laſt at Dover for Calais.

It ſeems his R. H. intended that his marriage ſhould have been kept ſecret, as his brother's has hitherto been; but the ceremony was no ſooner over, than the lady informed her friends of her newly acquired rank.

We can aſſure our readers, that the D. of C. is gone to France with Mrs. Horton, a widow (and ſiſter to Colonel Luttrell) whom he has married. He has left a letter to a Great Perſonage, informing him of the event, and that he will not return to England till the K—— will receive and acknowledge her as the D——ſs of C. We are alſo informed, that the R——l f——y is in great ſorrow on this event.

Some letters, ſaid to be of good authority, confirm the account that the Empreſs of Ruſſia has lately tranſmitted to the Court of Vienna her laſt reſolution relative to a pacification with the Grand Signior; and add, that ſhe agrees to give up all conquered countries, upon condition that the expences of the war be reimburſed to her. It is aſſerted that theſe laſt propoſals are diſapproved by the Court of Vienna.

Letters from Peterſburgh declare that the Plague, which rages at Moſcow, was ſaid to have been brought from Aſoph by ſome deſerters from the Coſſacks, who had been infected in that city; great numbers are carried off every day by this terrible diſeaſe, which affects the unhappy patients in a much ſhorter time than has been uſually remarked, with large blue ſwellings under the arms, in the cheeks, groins, and other glandular parts, and generally carries them off the fourth day.

A letter from Dantzick declares, the plague has appeared in the Ruſſian governments of Kiow, Woronitz, and Siberia; and that the villages in the latter province are almoſt entirely depopulated.

The public may rely on the truth of the following anecdote of John Eyre, Eſqr who, though worth upwards of 30,000l. was convicted at the Old Bailey on Friday evening laſt, and ſentenced to tranſportation, for ſtealing eleven quires of common writing paper. It ſhews the natural depravity of the human heart; and the principles upon which he then acted, may probably account for the meanneſs of his late conduct.—A few years ago, Mr. Eyre's uncle, a gentleman of conſiderable property, made his will in favour of a clergyman who was his intimate friend, and committed it, unknown to the reſt of his family, to the cuſtody of the Divine. However, not long before he died, having altered his mind with regard to the diſpoſal of his circumſtances, he made another will, wherein he left the clergyman only 50l. for his

of his large fortune to go to his nephew Mr. Eyre. Soon after the old gentleman's death, Mr. Eyre rummaging over his drawers found this laſt will, and perceiving the legacy of 500l. in it for the clergyman, without any hæſitation, or ſcruple of conſcience, put it in the fire, and took poſſeſſion of the whole effects, in conſequence of his uncle's being ſuppoſed to have died intеſtate. The clergyman coming to town ſoon after, and enquiring into the circumſtances of his old friend's death, aſked if he had made any will before he died; upon being anſwered by Mr. Eyre in the negative, the clergyman very coolly put his hand in his pocket, and pulled out the former will, which had been committed to his care, wherein Mr. Eyre had bequeathed him his whole fortune, amounting to ſeveral thouſand pounds, excepting a legacy of 500l. to his nephew.

It is ſaid that Mr. Eyre made over his eſtate to a near relation of his the day before his trial, ſo that it is thought the Sheriff's would only have his houſehold furniture, of which an inventory has been taken by their direction.

It is an undoubted fact, that our Court have no ſerious intention of reſenting the freſh inſults offered by the Spaniards. The people have no confidence in the preſent Miniſtry, and the King will not employ them. By the wickedneſs of one, and the obſtinacy of the other, the honour of the nation is tarniſhed: And Great-Britain, from being, in the glorious reign of his late Majeſty, on the higheſt pinnacle of reſpect, is now, in the peaceful reign of his preſent Majeſty, ſunk into the loweſt vale of contempt. The preſent wretched ſet of Miniſters, cannot put the nation into a proper ſtate of defence. They have no friends but thoſe they purchaſe. And this annual corruption, to ſupport the favourite ſcheme of governing by clerks and underlings, ſwallows ſo great a part of the public treaſure, that the remainder is not ſufficient for the real current ſervice. Hence 200,000l. extraordinary were voted laſt year for the navy; and this year another great ſum will be wanted. And till the fleet is in no condition for ſea. In the yards there are few ſtores, and leſs timber. Inſtead of 60,000 loads of timber (which the Houſe of Commons were told laſt winter) were neceſſary, and ought to be in the yards, there are not 12,000. The Spaniards know this, and therefore they deſpiſe us. And it is alſo an abſolute fact (notwithſtanding another lying article may come out from authority) THAT THE SPANIARDS WILL NOT GIVE UP FALKLAND'S ISLAND. They will indeed give us, for a little time, Port Egmont; but not an inch more. Our Court dare not take the Iſland; and the Spaniards know it. It is natural to aſk, what is become of the great ſums which have been levied on the ſubject, under the pretence of ſupporting the honour of the nation? The public are entitled to an anſwer. It is thus: Public credit is injured, the landed intereſt is plundered, trade is diſtreſſed, to raiſe money to procure a majority in both Houſes of Parliament, to ſupport the tottering ſyſtem of the Miniſter, and the corrupt depravity of the Court.

Notwithſtanding the many articles in the papers (and ſome of them by authority) that the Princeſs of Wales was in good health, and had been only ill of a cold, which had not even confined her, we can aſſure the public, that the contrary is the fact. She is very ill of a cancer in her mouth, which has extended to the throat, and is daily creeping downwards; ſo that her life muſt neceſſarily be but of ſhort duration. She has been fed by pipes for ſome days paſt.

The marriage of his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland to the Hon. Mrs. Horton, mentioned in the papers of this morning, gains credit. It is ſaid the ceremony was performed about five weeks ago. The Germans about Court are not a little affected by this manœuvre. They already ſee ſome conſequences it will have, and they fancy many more. This marriage may make ſufficient atonement for the follies of youth: And in caſe of the Duke of Glouceſter's and the Prince of Wales's deaths, he will ſtand firſt (by act of Parliament) in the Regency. Mrs. Horton is a widow lady, daughter to Lord Irnham and ſiſter to Col. Luttrell. The married pair are gone to Calais for a little while.

Yeſterday was held a General Court of the Proprietors of Eaſt India ſtock, at their houſe in Leadenhall-ſtreet, as by adjournment of the 19th of October laſt, for the determination by ballot of the following queſtion, "That it is the opinion of this Court, that the Court of Directors, in recommending to the Proprietors the continuance of the preſent dividend on their capital ſtock, have acted conſiſtently with the duty they owe the Company; and this Court do accordingly approve the reſolutions they came to upon that ſubject, and reſolve, that the thanks of this Court be returned to them for their conduct in that important matter."

We are informed of the following fact from reſpectable authority: His Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland being on a viſit ſome time ago where Mrs. Horton, ſiſter to the Member for Middleſex, was preſent, he fell ſo deſperately in love with her, as to make a declaration of his paſſion that evening. For that time the lady paſſed it off, as a piece of raillery; but the Duke continuing his viſits to her every day after, alarmed her ſo far as to acquaint her brother with the particulars. The Colonel immediately waited on his Highneſs, and in the moſt reſpectful terms told him, "that though he could not expect the honour of an alliance, he hoped he had a hand and heart to protect his ſiſter from diſhonour; and therefore begged he would diſcontinue his viſits." This reſolute expoſtulation, for ſome time, had the deſired effect; but at laſt, finding all his happineſs depended on poſſeſſing her, he ſent for the Colonel, and told him, he was ready to marry his ſiſter directly. The Colonel took him at his word.

We are well informed, that his Majeſty is ſo much affected with the preſent ſituation of his family, as not to have been able to get any reſt for ſeveral nights paſt.

The rank of a certain high Dutcheſs, we are aſſured, will ſhortly be declared, and an eſtabliſhment provided for her equal to her dignity.

We are aſſured, from the beſt authority, that, before the Duke of Glouceſter's departure from England, he recommended a certain Lady to a great Perſonage's care in the moſt pathetic and affectionate manner.

The ſquadron deſtined for the Bay of Biſcay is to be increaſed to ten ſail of the line, and will ſail from St. Helen's early in January next.

NOVEMBER 9. Their Serene Highneſſes the Prince of Mecklenburgh Strelitz, the Prince of Heſſe Darmſtadt, and Prince Poniatowſki, are invited to the Lord Mayor's feaſt to-morrow.

Mr. Harris, the Britiſh Envoy to the Court of Madrid, who lately returned from Spain by permiſſion, on his own affairs, will not, it is ſaid, be ſent back to Spain again, till the diſpute of the Hawke ſchooner is finally adjuſted.

Yeſterday a Court of Aldermen was held at Guildhall, when the Lord Mayor Elect was ſworn in for the year enſuing: Afterwards the Lord Mayor returned to the Manſion-houſe, where the following Aldermen, &c. were elegantly entertained at their joint expence, viz. Stephenſon, Trecothick, Peers, Eſdail, Kennett, Bird, Roſſeter, Oliver, the Recorder, Sheriff Bull, and the City Officers, &c.

Aldermen Ladbroke, Alſop, Halifax, and Wilkes were at Guildhall yeſterday, but did not dine at the Manſion-houſe.

The Salters Company walked before the State Coach to the Manſion-houſe, and dined with their Lordſhips.

Lord Mansfield is again the adviſer of the King and Miniſtry in the new diſpute with Spain.

Several of the Miniſtry are very apprehenſive leſt Spain ſhould not be in humour to make another apology.

NOVEMBER 12. Laſt Saturday's Gazette contains his Majeſty's order in Council, ſignifying, that an information has been received, that the plague hath broken out, and now rages at Moſcow, and other parts of Ruſſia, his Majeſty, by and with the advice of his Privy Council, doth thereupon judge it probable, that the infection may be brought into this kingdom, or the iſles of Jerſey, Guernſey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, from Archangel, Peterſburgh, Narva, Riga, or ſome other port or place in the dominions of Ruſſia; his Majeſty doth therefore order, that all ſhips, veſſels, perſons, goods, and merchandizes now arrived, or that ſhall hereafter arrive in any port of this kingdom, or the iſles of Jerſey, Guernſey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, from Archangel, Peterſburgh, Narva, Riga, or from any other port or place in the dominions of Ruſſia, do make their quarantine for forty days (under the reſtrictions mentioned in the ſaid order) which is to commence and be computed from the day each ſhip or veſſel ſhall come to anchor in the place appointed for performing quarantine, and not before: And that the place for performing quarantine by ſuch ſhips and veſſels (not having the infection on board) as are bound to the rivers of Thames and Medway, be Stangate-Creek; and by ſuch as are bound to any other of the ports of Great-Britain, be ſuch places as ſhall be appointed by the officers of his Majeſty's cuſtoms in the ſaid ports.

On Sunday afternoon another expreſs arrived in town from his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Glouceſter at Leghorn, which not only confirms the former agreeable and pleaſing accounts of his being thought out of danger, but likewiſe of his being entirely recovered.

It is ſaid that his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Glouceſter intends to reſide the enſuing winter at Florence.

Letters from the Hague mention, that the States-General have iſſued an edict, directing precautions to be taken to prevent the plague from being brought into any parts of the United Provinces, from Moſcow, &c.

A war with Spain is more than probable: However, a few days will ſhew whether our Court have a proper ſpirit or not. Spain thinks they have not; and if we may judge from the laſt negociation, the nation has a right to think the ſame.---How long is the honour of this country to be ſacrificed, to gratify the malicious pleaſure of baffling all men of approved abilities in contempt?

Dr. Jebb and Mr. Adair, who are to ſet out ſome time this week to viſit the Duke of Glouceſter, are to go by land over the Alps.

It is an old proverb, that a man cannot expect to wive and thrive in one year; the Duke of Cumberland has however proved an exception to this, as he won at Newmarket above 5000 l. in the courſe of laſt week.

On the 5th inſtant died at Dublin, the celebrated Dr. Lucas, Member of Parliament for that city.

ST. JAMES'S, November 7. Between one and two o'clock this afternoon, William Hunter, one of the domeſticks belonging to his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Glouceſter, arrived from Leghorn, which place he left on the 25th paſt, with an account that his Royal Highneſs was declared by his phyſicians to be out of danger, from the very alarming illneſs with which he had been attacked.

PETERSBURGH, September 13. A Ruſſian detachment, attempting to paſs by Taman, met with an unexpected repulſe from the Circaſſians, who being joined by ſome Tartars, very few of the Ruſſians eſcaped.

FRONTIERS OF POLAND, September 22. The Ruſſians have not yet made themſelves maſters of Balaclawa, in the Crimea; and it is aſſerted, that the great dearth of proviſions in thoſe parts will prevent their making any ſolid eſtabliſhment in that country.

WARSAW, October 2. A proceſs is carrying on by order of the Empreſs of Ruſſia, againſt ſuch Officers as are accuſed of having contributed to the repulſe of Giurgewo.

The Dutchy of Courland is in ſuch a ferment, as to endanger the peace of that State.

ROME, October 5. On Wedneſday laſt we had a terrible ſtorm accompanied with a heavy rain. The lightening fell on the cupola of the church of St. Anthony, and damaged the dome and roof conſiderably. The evening before the lightening fell on the hotel d'Albani, and did a great deal of damage.

BASTIA, October 7. We have received advice, that a felucca lately entered the river Valines, having on board 30,000 livres, on account of the Rebels who live in the mountains; but we know not from whence this money came.

LEGHORN, October 9. They write from Piſa, that Prince Edward arrived there the end of laſt week from Genoa. It is ſaid that after a few days ſtay there he will ſet out for Paris.

HAGUE, October 30. Prince Gallitzin the Ruſſian Envoy at this place, has received a letter from Leghorn, dated October 11, informing him, that ſeveral Greeks, arrived there from Zant, report, that the Ruſſian fleet was actually beſieging the Iſle of Negrepont; that they had really burnt thirty-two veſſels from Algiers, Tunis, and Tripoli, in the port of Modon; and that the Ruſſians had loſt only one chebec and an Engliſh built frigate.

WARSAW, October 16. Tranquility reigns in this city, but want has reduced the provinces to the moſt miſerable ſtate. Great Poland is threatened with a famine, which indeed ſeems to be inevitable.

The Confederates are raiſing recruits with all diligence on the frontiers of Upper Sileſia, and inliſt a vaſt number of Saxon and Bavarian deſerters, but they begin to be in great want of money and proviſions. Yeſterday there was to be an election of a new Marſhal, we are very impatient to know whether they have choſen the Chevalier Stuart, or Count Oginſki, who it is ſaid, were both preſented as candidates by a certain Court.

ITALY, Oct. 13. It is aſſured that the Court of Naples has offered the Pope 1,500,000 ſcudis for the Duchies of Caſtro and Ronciglione.

PETERSBURGH, October 8. Letters from Moſcow bring an account of a great tumult in that city, occaſioned by ſome regulations made by the Archbiſhop for checking the contagion, and particularly by his removing certain objects of the devotion of the populace, to which the ſick and thoſe in health crowded promiſcuouſly. The mob broke into the Archbiſhop's palace, and plundered it, deſtroyed the poſt-houſes, and committed ſeveral other diſorders. The Archbiſhop fled to a neighbouring monaſtery, where he was attacked and cruelly murdered the next morning. Great numbers of the populace were killed by the troops, before they could be diſperſed; but as Count Orlow was expected to arrive at Moſcow on the 6th inſt. it was hoped that his preſence and authority would effectually quiet the diſturbance.

BASTIA, October 15. There has been a ſharp ſkirmiſh in the environs of Calvi, between the rebels and the French, in which the latter have been worſted, 20 of the party being ſlain, while the rebels loſt only one man. This action has engaged the Count de Marbeuf to iſſue the moſt preſſing orders for ſeizing the criminals, and likewiſe to march a conſiderable body of troops againſt them.

WARSAW, October 19. According to the letter which the Field Marſhal Count de Romanzcow lately wrote to Mr. Saldern, the Ruſſian Ambaſſador at this Court, a certain Prince Emanuel, whom the Turks have elected Prince of Walachia, was preſent in the action of the 1ſt of September, when Lieutenant Colonel Fabricius defeated at Rymnick near Oltz, a body of 3000 Turks. This Prince commanded in perſon the corps of which 600 men were killed on the ſpot, and 40, among whom were two Agas, were made priſoners. The Ruſſians took two ſtaffs, two ſtandards, the Prince's turban with the enſigns of his dignity, his equipages, and all the baggage of the principal officers and bojards of Walachia. The Ruſſians have alſo burnt a large magazine which the Turks had at Rymnick; this action coſt the Ruſſians only 23 killed, and 66 wounded.

DANTZICK, October 28. The tumult among the populace at Moſcow (lately mentioned) was not ſuppreſſed till the 8000 men ſent againſt the mob had made uſe of their artillery, and killed about 400 of them. Notwithſtanding this loſs, the rioters demanded that their aſſociates who were taken priſoners ſhould be ſet at liberty, but the Commander of the troops told them, they ſhould all be hanged. Marſhal Soltikow left Moſcow two days after the above event, when every thing was very quiet.

LEGHORN, October 23. A veſſel arrived here from Port Mahon, brings an account that four Daniſh men of war were ſeen off Algiers, which city was threatened with a freſh bombardment; in conſequence of which the Bey had fortified all the coaſt, and erected ſeveral new batteries mounted with 670 pieces of cannon and 50 mortars. At Algiers there are 10,000 men ready to take up arms; the Vice-Roy of Conſtantina has orders to raiſe 20,000 more, and the Vice-Roy of Tuterin was likewiſe ordered to keep 10,000 men in readineſs, beſides a large body of Moors who were poſted along the coaſt to prevent the enemy's landing. The Emperor of Morocco has ſent three Embaſſadors to Algiers, whoſe buſineſs is a ſecret. From all theſe circumſtances it appears, that the preſent ruler of Algiers is preparing every thing with the greateſt prudence to put his city in a ſtate of making the moſt obſtinate defence, and ſeems determined not to agree to any conditions of peace whatever.

HAMBURGH, November 1. It is ſaid for certain, that an account is arrived of the King of Pruſſia's preparations for war in Saxony, that he is to begin his march the 6th inſt. with 10,000 men. It is added, that the troops from Brunſwick are the firſt to begin. The reaſon is, that he has diſcovered the Saxons have aſſiſted the Confederates in Poland.

HAGUE, November 5. Some letters have been received here, which aſſert that a very conſiderable body of Pruſſian troops have entered Poliſh Pruſſia; and as the King of Pruſſia has been ſome time buying up great quantities of corn ſecretly, it is to be feared, that the troubles in Poland will rather increaſe than diminiſh, and that his Pruſſian Majeſty has a mind to ſeize upon the abovementioned provinces. We expect every day to receive ſome important advices relative to the conſequences of this affair.
